Doings of the Various Sets in this City and Its Immediate Vicinity--The Goings and Comings and Other Items of General Interest.

Miss Meta Stofen spent several days in the city this week.

Mrs. L. H. Green visited in San Francisco one day this week.

F. Anker came down from Santa Rosa the middle of the week.

R. E. Lynch was called to Santa Rosa Monday on telephone business.

Herman Steadman was here from the Bay City Sunday visiting local relatives and friends.

Rev. T. M. Price and wife were visitors to San Francisco one day the fore part of the week.

Miss Mae Englund returned from a brief visit to the metropolis Tuesday evening.

Miss Ruth Kearns of Glen Ellen took in the minstrel show and dance here Saturday evening.

Mrs. R. E. Lynch and Mrs. W. Hagans of Ukiah were passengers on Sunday afternoon's south-bound train.

Messrs. Arthur Lowell, Fred. Lowell and Jack Gottenberg took a hunting trip to Rio Vista Wednesday.

Miss Beth Trudgen, after a pleasant visit with relatives and friends, returned to the metropolis Sunday.

L. B. Lawson, specialist, of the Lawson Rinner Optical Co., will be at the Union hotel on Monday, December 15th.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Goepfert (nee Lillie Bulotti) are entertaining a little daughter in their home in San Francisco, which was born last week.

The grand anniversary ball to be given by the El Verano Development Association, as announced in these columns last week, has been postponed to a future date.

The stork paid a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. Bradley of Tiburon Saturday, and left them a native son. Mrs. Bradley was formerly Miss Rosella Graham of this place.

Clarence Nauman, accompanied by his little daughter, Miss Irene Nauman and Capt. De Bray of San Francisco, were week-end guests at the Bates residence on Napa street.

Jep Valente has posters out announcing a turkey fest next door to the Palace Hotel on Saturday evening, December 20th. He has secured a fine lot of birds for the occasion.

The minstrel show and dance given in Union Hall last Saturday night by Sonoma Parlor of Native Sons for the benefit of the homeless children's fund, was a great success in every way. The performance was a credit to the local talent which had volunteered their services in the good cause. The overture and introductory would have done credit to old professionals, while the cake walk brought down the house. The duet sang by A. Jansen and Miss Ramona Granice also came in for much applause. Between 300 and 400 people took in the show.

Write About their Travels in the

The large stores are larger than any we saw in America or England and you wonder where the money comes from the way they buy here--more furs, more silks, more diamonds, more everything than by us. Any afternoon, rain or shine, you have to elbow your way through the stores, and they understand how to sell, not at all behind the "Yankee." I did everything as the Frenchman did when it came to eating and also to snails. They have them all sizes, of course. One dozen was enough for both of us and I can not say that I like them. They drink no tea here. Everything is coffee and cognac or a little roll (bread) if you wish and these places are in evidence everywhere. It is the cosmopolitan life you lead here and one wonders how they could have existed before seeing Paris. There is a longing to return and of course with plenty of money you can live as cheap as you wish or otherwise. If you please this eating or drinking or sporting is not all that Paris can boast of and I am an American (German born) naturally partial to one of those countries, but you must give France its dues. They have the finest, most beautiful parks, views, avenues, ancient palaces and art galleries, that you wonder indeed whence came all of this wealth. The Louvre, the palace Versailles, the beautiful churches, and public buildings, churches with priceless windows and with all harmony everywhere. Not that constant growling and nagging as we find it in our California towns at least broadmindedness can only come from intelligent investigation and travel, when you see how others are living and doing business in other countries. I could dwell for hours on the beauties of Paris, but enough I am afraid you would sail on the next boat and this is winter-time and more dangerous so I will save some to tell you about. Freddie was beginning to speak French when we had to leave and this time for Germany through Belgium. We left Paris at 7 a. m. and arrived at Cologne on the Rhine at 5 p. m., a beautiful little city of 600,000 inhabitants with its "Dome" Cathedral. Beyond that there is very little to see except fine beer and sausages. I visited the hospitals and University in Bonn as well as those in Cologne. They are up-to-date. In Bonn they have 4000 students. Also saw the Zeppelin airship in Cologne. We were here two weeks, took a short trip on the Rhine by steamer and then took the shore road up the Rhine to Mannheim. The day was beautiful and we had a fine view of all the famous old castles and vineyards on the hillsides, a trip you will never forget. From Mannheim we went to Heidelberg and visited the University, the Castle and hospital, a beautiful little city of about 40,000 inhabitants, picturesque in the valley of the "Neckar," mountains on both sides. There is one thing of great importance we saw by chance and something you would have taken a long trip to see, and that is the fencing of the students for blood. They call it the "Meusur." They fight with sharp swords. They are not allowed to stop until they are disabled from the loss of blood. All wounds of course are on the face or head, the neck being protected. You ought to see how proud they are after the bandages are applied and you can see nothing but eyes, every other part is bandaged about the head. Bear in mind all of this is lawful and all good students must go through this or be ostracized from the society of the better class of students. I received a tip to see it and it lasted three hours. Freddie and Mrs. Leix were along. We saw it through the upstairs windows, a picture of which I enclose and ever since the little fellow (Freddie) saw it he is talking of nothing else but the students. Now with all this cutting and slashing of heads and faces, you see not even the moving of a muscle indicating pain. Of course the eyes are covered, but should they cry out with pain they are at first sharply reprimanded and should it happen three times they are not permitted to take part any more and naturally have to forfeit the ribbon which they all so dearly cherish. The ribbon, in colors, crosses the body and right shoulder. There are about 2500 students here and have a University second to none, at least, so they say, and I know some of the professors refused to exchange for Berlin.

From Heidelberg we left at 12:30 p. m. and arrived at my old home in the black forest at 10 p. m., a fine climate but the life is more simple and quiet, as in Sonoma.

In a short time we shall leave for Switzerland, Italy, Austria, Vienna, Berlin, Munich, etc. I enjoy your paper when I get it and I tell you it is a treat to hear from home and in such a far away country.

Give my best wishes to all of our friends and also accept the same from Mrs. Leix and Freddie. They are both good travelers.

Sincerely yours,
FREDERICK LEIX, M. D.

House is Robbed.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. A. Juillerat, 946 61st street, Oakland, was robbed some time last Monday during the absence of the family. The robbers secured a gold watch and two razors, but overlooked a diamond stud and other valuables. Entrance had been gained to the house by the back door, which had been jimmied open. This is the third time in the last few years that the Juillerat residence has been entered by thieves. Mrs. Juillerat, who is at present the guest of her daughter, Mrs. R. E. Lynch, reported the case to police headquarters.

NEW GRAND JURY INVESTIGATING ANOTHER REFORMER

It is J. K. Bigelow This Time
Who is Accused by E. O.
Gates, His Whilom Friend, of Withhold $226
From Him.

A new grand jury was empaneled in the Superior Court of this county Monday by Judge Emmet Seawell and at once entered upon its duties. Harry Hall was appointed foreman by the court.

The body is composed of the following members: Harry L. Hall, Ross C. Moody, Peter J. Blinn, J. M. Hardin, J. T. Coon, F. W. Maddox, Andrew Erickson, John K. Wright, Mark L. McDonald, Jr., W. F. Holmes, A. B. Ribley, F. A. Sullivan, John Wylie, Henry Schluckebier, W. A. Tough, Eli Bush, A. A. Lomont, J. R. Gallagher and Albert Baker.

Shortly after being sworn in the new inquisitorial body got busy investigating two cases brought to its attention.

E. O. Gates of Sonoma, says the Press Democrat, was seen entering the grand jury room and it is said that he followed out his declared intention some time since of laying before that body a complaint against J. K. Bigelow, alleging that the latter did not turn over to him the sum of $226, which he alleges Rudolph Spreckels sent to Bigelow for him to pay him (Gates) in part for his work in registering voters and doing other work in the "wet" and "dry" in the Sonoma Valley some time ago in the interests of the "drys."

This matter was brought out at the recent trial of the suit of Bigelow vs. Gates. The two men were former friends and their subsequent falling out came as a surprise. It is an echo of the bitter controversy that some time since stirred the Sonoma Valley. A land deal between the two men is also said to be involved in the present proceeding instituted by Gates.

Witnesses from Petaluma and San Francisco were also called before the grand jury in connection with a case of alleged obtaining of property, to wit: eggs under false pretenses.

The grand jury had not completed its investigation on Monday night and will meet again today.

Congregational Church, Dec. 14

If there is in the development of man a resurrection from the dead we ought to know it. Do you think there is any subject that is known in such a way that no more can be known about it? We think the head is the only thing with which we can know things, but we forget the great number of things we know by experience and that experience is much more knowing about the resurrection than the head. The first step in knowing some things is to know that what you know is all wrong. Do not be afraid to tear down and build on greater plans. We ought to run after new thoughts of the resurrection. At 11 a. m. Sunday we will review the matter.

At 6:30 p. m. the Y. P. S. C. E. will meet.

At 7:30 we will try to show what the consensus of human reason declares to be the best and big best type of manhood. This type includes womanhood. There is no sex in virtue or truth or anything eternal. Sex will pass away but not an atom of good. The same thing that makes a good man makes a good woman. You must be good before you can do good, no matter if your opinion is otherwise.

Calif. Tel. & Light Company Selling Stock and Bonds.

The Railroad Commission having recently, by its decision 1086, authorized the sale of $100,000 of 6 per cent gold bonds, at no less than 94, and $50,000 of 6 per cent preferred cumulative stock, to net not less than $80.00, F. L. Wright, General Manager, is soliciting and offering to consumers of his company this stock at $85.00 per share. The offering is being made in small lots, with the approval of the Railroad Commission, so that consumers can buy one or more shares at a price that will net better than 7 per cent dividends, payable semi-annually.

The bonds will probably be handled through N. W. Halsey & Co., who handled the previous issue of $350,000 at 94.

Death of H. C. Burmester's Father

Deiderick Burmester of Petaluma father of H. C. Burmester, the well known poultry man of El Verano, passed away at the home of his son near Petaluma last Sunday, after a lingering illness of one year. The deceased was a native of Germany and aged 73 years.

In speaking of the passing of Mr. Burmester, the Petaluma Courier says:

"He was a member of the German Evangelical church and held obligations of Christian citizenship with high purpose and honest endeavor. The title of good citizen had a definite and luminous meaning when applied to him, for in his business career he exemplified upright methods of dealing and followed along the lines that were right. His death was a gentle transition from suffering to the better life beyond."

"A wide circle of friends and acquaintances regret the passing of the good man and extend sympathy to the bereaved family."

GRAMMAR SCHOOL BEND ELECTION

Further Arguments of the Opposition Answered by a Booster

The attention of the public is called to the exaggerated statements and unfair arguments being daily advanced by the opposition to the school-bonding proposition upon which the voters of Sonoma District are to have the opportunity of expressing their opinion on Saturday, December 20th. Such arguments are calculated to becloud the issue and prejudice the voter against the proposition. Within the last week Mr. Objector has advanced a number of altogether original arguments explaining why the bonds should be defeated. The reader will recall his arguments in last week's issue regarding lighting, janitor work and new teachers, and that these arguments were proved to be without grounds and facts given instead.

Now, here is one of his very latest. "That assembly hall provided for in the plans," so he says, "will be used by every nigger show and circus that comes to town free of charge, and the law gives them the right to do it." Now, this room, as well as the entire property, will be under the charge of the Trustees and will be used, when they grant the permission. It will be used by the children for their exercises and entertainments, and any one who has ever visited our public school on such an occasion surely knows the need of such a room. It will be used by the public for meetings of a general public nature—a mass meeting or public gathering of some sort or a meeting of the farmers of our district, for instance, a lecture by a Professor from the University upon say fruit pests, best methods of spraying or some other subject of general interest. This is done in many localities. It will not be used for political or partisan purposes. Nigger shows, circuses and Kanama shows will (and anyone who stops to think knows it) be debarred from the use of it. It is not to be thought of. Such things are not given in the assembly hall of other school buildings in neighboring cities and Objector knows it full well. It will not be a dance hall. An assembly hall is a necessary adjunct to every modern school building and is found in them wherever one goes. So do not be misled by hearing some one make it appear that this is an entirely new and useless feature of the plans. Again we are told that the rooms are too small, yet they are the standard large size class room, 24x32 ft., that are found in any up-to-date school building, and the size that is accepted as being right. The President of the Board of Trustees of Cloverdale, in which city they are soon to vote upon the same proposition now before the people of Sonoma District, says they are considering rooms 22x30 as being plenty large enough, and he furthermore stated on the occasion of his visit here, last Sunday, that if their building was only in the same condition as ours he was sure the election would carry unanimously, and they are voting $30,000 on an assessment of $600,000 while we have considerably over nine hundred thousand and fast approaching a million.

We are told that the Lovall Valley section is not in our district and that consequently whatever improvements might be made there would not benefit us. This statement is untrue. That section is in this district and will add to the amount of taxable property. We have a large, a prosperous and a wealthy district, that can easily carry a bond issue of $30,000 spread out over 30 years, thus giving the future a share in the payment. As an illustration of the prosperous condition of our section $20,000 in autos alone was to be seen lined up in front of the Public Hall Saturday evening. Again we are told that it is nonsense to erect a building of the size given in the plans and then, again, that there are only "three or four little rooms in the whole darned thing." There are as a matter of fact six large class rooms, two play rooms, a room that in the future may be used for domestic science teaching of manual training, two subjects that are being rapidly introduced into all of the larger town schools and subjects that are meeting the demand of people that the hands should be trained as well as the mind. Cooking, sewing and a knowledge of the use of tools, etc., is probably more essential to the usefulness of the average boy or girl than a knowledge of technical grammar, latin and algebra. Any one who has ever visited a school in which these subjects are taught and has seen the children absorbed in them will be convinced of their utility and their place in the school. In addition to these ten rooms there is also the assembly hall. Do these figures look like "three or four darned little things?" To show clearly that some consideration must be had for the future in erecting a building of this kind, by providing additional class rooms, these figures on attendance are given:

| Avg Daily Att. | Avg Enrollment |
|----------------|----------------|
| 1907-1908 | 100 |
| 1908-1909 | 115 |
| 1909-1910 | 125 |
| 1910-1911 | 115 |
| 1911-1912 | 129 |
| 1912-1913 | 130 |

Average increase in five years 20 per cent which would mean, even at the rate of the past five years, 188 pupils enrolled with an avg. attendance of 170 giving us five and almost six teachers by 1918. Anyone not prejudiced will admit that by reason of the Canal and Fair the increase for the next five years will surely exceed that of the past five years. These additional teachers would be paid by the State and not by special local tax. Is it not plain to be seen that we should consider the future in building?

We are told that the city is already bonded. Now, as a matter of fact, the City Hall bonds of $10,000 are almost half paid off and the payments are steadily and rapidly growing smaller, and on the sewer bonds of $20,000 the heaviest payments have been made and as they run forty years the payments are not large, so that as compared with other cities of the same size our bonded indebtedness is not burdensome. As for the rural position of our school district it has no bonded indebtedness at all at present. We are in a position to assume this responsibility—the bonding of our district for $30,000 to run for 30 years and with the assessment of the rural portion of our district about 4 1/2 of that of the city, you can see that the expense will be divided, the city standing about $16,000 and the outside the balance.

Now, Mr. Voter, don't listen to the scape talk that is being so freely circulated. Get at the facts. Try to realize the need of and the great benefits of such an improvement and do not oppose this amount of $30,000 as with it we get an A-1 building in every particular that will serve our needs for many years to come without continuous repairs and expense.

El Verano built a two-room building three years ago because they were afraid that bonds sufficient to erect a larger building would not carry, and now they are forced to tear out and practically rebuild their building in order to get the two more class rooms demanded by the increasing attendance. Build for the future. Do not be penny wise and pound foolish.

And now, Mr. Voter, consider this fact in particular. If the bonds fail the Trustees will (and they have the absolute power to do it) levy a special tax next year almost if not equal to the tax required for a new building, for the purpose of repairing the old building—putting in new floors, replastering the rooms, repairing the roof and foundation, painting, etc. Such being the case don't you think it would be more business like to put this money into a new building now instead of throwing it away in the old one that in a few years will come down. Think well on this when you go to vote.

VINEBURG NEWS ITEMS

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way, all About the Week's Happenings in and Around His Section of the Valley.

Edward Pringle and Mrs. Stark of San Francisco were guests at the D. Sante residence Sunday.

Mrs. Fred Batto and sister, Miss Adele Adenoux, were the guests of Mrs. C. Andrieux on Monday last.

After spending a week's pleasant visit with her parents, Miss Mary Batto returned to San Francisco on Monday afternoon's train.

Mrs. A. Silva, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Manual Souza of Oakland, transacted legal business in Santa Rosa on Tuesday last.

Mrs. George Breitenbach of Sonoma and her pretty little niece, Miss Ethel Evers, were the guests of Mrs. Carrie Dependence in this place Sunday.

John Hang up the baby's stocking, Be sure and don't forget Sweet little Native Daughter Never had a Christmas yet.

Mrs. Adam Giegrich of El Nido on the Hyde tract, accompanied by her nephew and niece Mr. and Mrs. Hampton, was a city visitor on Sunday and Monday last.

The stork soared over Vineburg on Monday, December 8th, and a bright-eyed Native daughter now cheers the hearts and home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bobell. Dr. Gobar reports no other child as doing nicely.

Mrs. Louis Klapierich was taken suddenly ill with pneumonia on Friday a week ago and was removed to the Leix Sanitarium on last Sunday morning. The many friends of the lady will be pleased to learn that she is on the road to recovery.

Vineburg, Dec. 10th, 1913
Easy Jim:

You have my sympathy, as I heard a rumor at the last meeting of the 5 O'clock Tea Club that Jessie J. was going to resign as your assistant and not write any more. Too bad. I hear she is going to start a cooking school for men only. So they will be able to cook for themselves after a while and let the ladies rest. How kind. Well, all I have to say is that Jessie is an expert in the art of cooking, and she can cook anything from a "Sonoma creek Mulligan" to a "the story wedding cake," but of course her leading and most elaborate dish is those double decked rice puffs.

I hear a Schellville inventor is now working on what he expects to prove a success and that his fortune is made. It is a back seat for motorcycles that are used for carrying children and it is shaped like a cradle. Won't that be nice for the children. I hope no one robs the cradle.

I think it is awful jolly these pleasant Sunday afternoons to jump in a nice red auto and take a spin around this part of the valley. I just think it is real healthy for salesladies, typewriters, stenographers and assistant book keepers to throw the cares of the store and office to the four winds and enjoy themselves. You can ride all around and go nearly as far as Napa, but don't go any farther as you are liable not to come back. I am going again as soon as Allie can borrow a other auto.

Regards to Ethel Eastlake, Minnie Madden, Olivia Oliver, Fannie Ferndale and all the girls.

Yours sincerely
Carrie Carrollton

She was a beautiful young woman, well-known in the metropolis and Sonoma and leaves besides her husband, a little son. The funeral took place Wednesday from St. Paul's Church, the interment being in Holy Cross Cemetery.

The Hay Market

Somers & Co. in their weekly hay market report under date of December 9th, report the condition of the hay market as follows: "Total arrivals for the week amount to 1881 tons as compared with 1743 last week. Although it is still difficult to move hay in some sections of the state, where storage barns are not on the railroad or water, yet light arrivals have been occasioned chiefly because of the slack demand here.

As an indication of light trading in hay we have but to report the total arrivals on this market for the month of November, which amounted to 6469 tons as compared with 10,058 tons during October. On referring to the records for November of 1912 we find that the total shows 9007 tons whereas in November 1911 the total shows 11,864 tons, thus indicating that last month's hay business in San Francisco was but a trifle over half what it was two years ago.

There are many things that have conspired to reduce the demand here, primarily amongst which is of course the automobile. The loss of Government business and export trade owing to the competitive markets such as Portland and Seattle, have been able to underbid us and the elimination from the county of practically all our dairies, have contributed largely to the lessening of our tonnage.

It is generally conceded that many consumers will be in the market for further supplies after the first of the year, so some improvement is expected at that time. Other than this indication the market is featureless.
